Summer 2012

 Wasilla Programs

Online registration at www.akcenter.org!

Accredited by the American Camp Association

Trailside Discovery Camp is a program of Alaska Center for the Environment

Day Programs Ages 5–12

$175 per week; 4 weeks or more $7 discount per week.

$40 Registration fee per family required.

All of our programs are designed to be both fun and informative. Naturalists lead small groups teaching natural history and the natural sciences, nature craft, social growth, as well as leadership and outdoor skills. Programs emphasize interactive hands-on outdoor experiences. Participants slog through bogs, explore forests, and tread gently across trails learning about nature while immersed in it. Join us for a fun-filled summer in the great outdoors!

Programs begin at 9:00am and end at 4:00pm.
Meet at Cottonweed Creek Management Area Trailhead, off of Hayfield Road.

Wilderness Survival

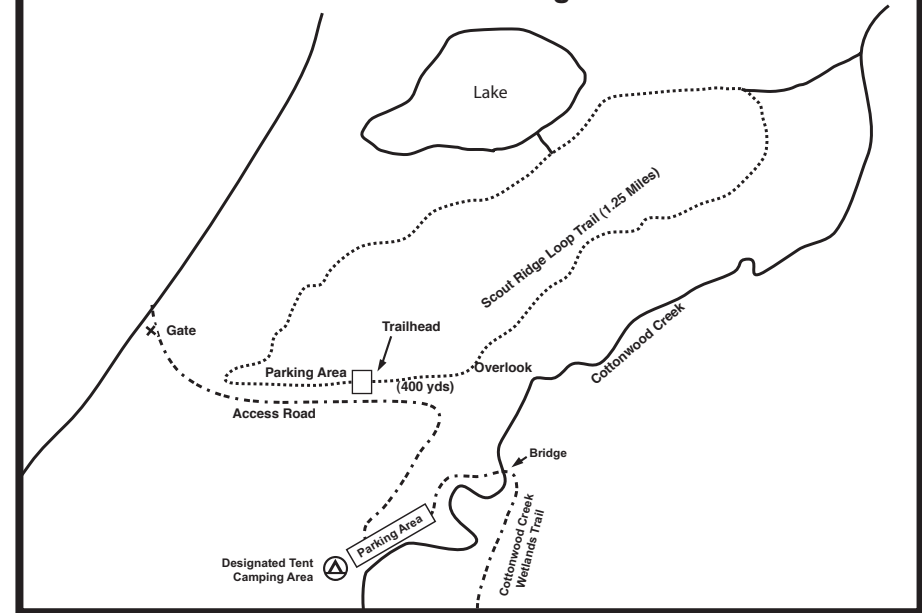

- learn to stay alive with what nature provides
- find your way with a compass
- what to do in an emergency
- your team will be challenged to find your way

Geology Surveyors

- explore how glaciers move
- fossil fun
- build an erupting volcano and witness an explosion
- witness how rivers cut through new lands!

Palmer Hay Flats State Game Refuge Cottonwood Creek Management Area
