Why Choose Trailside Discovery?

Our History:

With over 20 years of experience in Outdoor Environmental Education, TDC is recognized as the largest, premier daycamp in Alaska.

Our Staff:

Well-trained, adult, professional instructors provide your school's program. Our energetic, service-minded staff members are highly involved from the planning stages of your trip to your departure to ensure a fun, educational, and memorable experience designed to meet your goals.

Our Program Selection:

Choose from seven activity-based classes, each with learning objectives to support the Alaska curriculum benchmarks.

Spring/Fall Classes

- Aquatic Ecologists
- Forest Communities
- Mammalian Mayhem
- Orienteering
- Incredible Journey
- A Taste of Nature
- Wilderness Survival

Winter Classes

- Owl Study
- Winter Survival
- Snow Shoeing
- Cross Country Skiing
- Winter Ecology
- Fire Quest/Outdoor Cooking

Our Facilities

Our program is held at Spring Creek Farm, off of Farm Loop Road. We have 300 acres of forests, fields, a spring-fed creek, and plenty of natural space for learning and exploring. Multiple indoor classrooms offer flexibility in the event of uncooperative weather.
