

Host Organization: The Alaska Center

Job Title: Pebble Organizer

Location: Anchorage, AK

Reports to: Field Manager

Status: 5-10 hours per week

Compensation: Academic credit as arranged with your professor

Duration: 12 weeks, starting February 1-25

Description of Organization:

The Alaska Center envisions a thriving and sustainable Alaska for generations to come. With our sister organization, The Alaska Center Education Fund, we engage and empower Alaskans to stand up for clean air and water, healthy communities, and a strong democracy. We believe that when Alaskans are involved in the decisions about the relationship with our resources, we create a more just, equitable and sustainable future. Our issue priorities are protecting salmon habitat, advancing clean energy solutions, and amplifying Alaskan's voices in the public process. Together, we achieve our mission through youth education and leadership development, community organizing and mobilizing, and electing leaders who champion our values.

Assignment:

The Alaska Center is seeking an enthusiastic and talented individual to serve as our Spring 2019 Pebble Organizer. This position will work to stop the Pebble Mine project in Alaska by educating and engaging hundreds of individuals to take action and get involved in the campaign.

The Draft Environmental Impact Statement (DEIS) will be released on Feb. 22nd for a 90 day comment period. It is critical that Alaskans once again speak out during this comment period as it is the last time we can weigh in on the Federal level.

Core Responsibilities: Duties and responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Educate and engage Alaskans on the Pebble Mine project during the 90 day comment period;
- Build a network and manage volunteers who want to get involved in the campaign;
- Work collaboratively with The Alaska Center Education Fund coalition and community partners;
- Represent The Alaska Center at community events;

- Maintain clean, standardized data collection in the Voter Action Network Alaska and update progress bi-weekly.

Qualifications & Skills:

- 0-2 years of experience with grassroots organizing;
- Passion for The Alaska Center mission and three major policy platforms - healthy fisheries, climate solutions and a strong democracy;
- Ability to meaningfully engage Alaskans from diverse backgrounds;
- Innovation, ability to take risks, constant curiosity and desire to learn;
- Demonstrated volunteer recruitment, training and supervision skills;
- Demonstrated initiative and ability to work well independently;
- Strong communication skills for working with a team in different locations;
- Excellent organization and planning skills;
- Experience with coordinating events;
- Demonstrated ability to manage multiple projects, respond quickly to emerging opportunities, and be flexible to adapt to changing circumstances of dynamic organizations;

To apply, please send a letter of interest and resume to kengo@akcenter.org